Past life careers as a songwriter for Warner Brothers and as a jazz musician.

I am fortunate to be an illustrator of trade and text books for children, with years of experience and a complete knowledge of working closely with art direction. In addition to books, I enjoy making game boards and toys, calendars and posters, cookbooks and editorial art as well. My clients include

Houghton Mifflin
Harcourt
Macmillan McGraw Hill
Random House Children's Books
Chicago Tribune
D.C.Cook and Augsburg Publishing
Modern Curriculum Press
Pearson Educational
Steck Vaughn
Silver Burdett and Ginn
Free Spirit Publishing (Being the Best Me series 2016)
Silver Publishing.Barnes and Noble (Annual Do It Yourself Calendars)

I have exhibited my work at galleries on the east coast and in the midwest.
I recently taught a class on seeing art and the Minnesota Museum of Modern Art.

I have found that self representation allows both me and you the client, to develop a working relationship that promotes maximum creativity in the art. I see the business end of illustrating as an exciting and mutually beneficial experience.
